

ÁLVARO TRILLO

JAZZ-PERCUSSION PROFESSOR

---

Academic record

In 2016 he finished his Higher degree in music in the Specialty of Jazz-Drums at the Conservatorio Superior de A Coruña.

Subsequently, he completed the University Master of Secondary Education at the International University of Valencia in the Specialty of Music.

Professional experience

His entire professional career is marked by a great job as a teacher.

He has been a drum teacher on his own account, in the Alfaia Association from 2012 to 2014 and Professor of Drums, Percussion, Combo and Complementary Piano at the Municipal School of Music in Oroso.

He has also played in different groups and is defined as a freelance musician since 2006.

His Buxeiro project won the SGAE Galicia Creativa 2015 award in the Jazz section.

Over the years, he developed a role as an off-road drummer that allowed him to participate in numerous projects, with which he won 9 Martín Códax awards.

He has recorded 16 albums: jazz, fusion, soul, blues, folk and pop.

One of these, Magnetic-Zen by Xoán Curiel, received a MIN award in 2013. He has shared the stage with musicians such as Jorge Pardo, Abe Rábade, Pablo Castaño, and Antonio Bravo.

Currently he explores genres ranging from Neo Soul to Environmental Jazz, through Free Improvisation or Pop.

Álvaro Trillo

He has studied at the Conservatorio Superior de A Coruña.

He has won 9 Martín Códax awards and has recorded 16 albums: jazz, fusion, soul, blues, folk and pop. One of these, Magnetic-Zen by Xoán Curiel, received a MIN award in 2013.

Currently he explores genres ranging from Neo Soul to Environmental Jazz, through Free Improvisation or Pop.