

GUEORGUI OGANESIAN

JAZZ-SAXOPHONE PROFESSOR

Academic record

He begins his official studies at the Julián Orbón Conservatory, Asturias. He finishes his higher education at the Conservatory of Music of A Coruña in the specialty of jazz improvisation with saxophone.

He has attended various master classes to complement his training: Master Class with Bob Sands; Annual jazz seminar by Jacobo de Miguel; free jazz master class with Mat Renzi and Masa Kamaguchi; and Thanos Athanasopoulos master class.

Professional experience

Within his professional experience he highlights his teaching on the one hand and his participation in different groups and bands.

He has been part of the Soulman group in Asturias, by Patrulla Dixie, has collaborated with the Big Band Ciudad de Gijón, has been a saxophone player for the Big Band A Coruña, with whom he performed at the Jazzatlántica festival together with Julia Hulsmann, Jorge Pardo and Walter White.

Currently he has his own group being saxophonist, composer and arranger in Gueorgui Oganessian Trío together with Risto Voulanne and Brais Villar. He is also part of Jass Vibes (saxophonist and co-arranger); The Rue Band; Garufa Blue Devis Big Band saxophonist; saxophonist and clarinet player for Los Hot Chocolates dixie band.

He is a saxophonist and musical director of the Patapatúm theater show and has collaborated in different record productions with different artists: Susana Seivane, Ricardo Casas Fuiada na Vila, Garufa Blue Devils Big Band Running Wild, Siboney, and Xiao Berlai.

Gueorgui Oganessian

Saxophonist, composer and arranger.

He has participated and formed part of different music groups, performing in renowned festivals such as Jazzatlántica.

He has made different record collaborations as a saxophonist.

He combines his life as a musician with his life as a teacher.