

Miguel Vizoso

PIANO PROFESSOR

Academic Record

Master in "Musical Creation and Interpretation" by the URJC (performative TFM: "La Pavane pour une Infante défunte by Maurice Ravel. Interpretive study of the piano version based on the orchestration of the composer"), Graduated from the Superior Conservatory of Piano of Music of Barcelona (Extraordinary Honorable Mention) and University Expert in "Diagnosis and education of students with high abilities" by UNED.

Miguel Vizoso has a solid technical and musical training as a performer, mainly consolidated with the training received by the concert pianists and pedagogues Miquel Farré and Iván Cítera (who was his last and most influential teacher), and complemented by renowned musicians (A. Jasinski , J.Colom and Paul Badura Skoda among others).

Professional Experience

He has extensive experience in the training of pianists, developed mainly at the Conservatorio Superior de Música de Aragón, where he was a Specialist Professor of Piano (2005-2010), and as an officer of the Galician Corps of Music and Performing Arts Professors. Lover of Chamber Music, he is part of the trio "Sarela Ensemble" with Anne Schollossmacher (viola of the RFG) and Nicolás Otero (clarinet of the Municipal Band of Santiago), and of the "Esthesia Piano duo" with the CSM Professor Coruña Yolanda Delgado.

He is invited as a jury in piano competitions and festivals (Real Club Náutico de Vigo, Peregrinos Musicais), and to give master classes and lectures at universities (Alfonso X el Sabio University of Madrid, USC).

He is currently pedagogical director and jury at the "Piano Meeting Festival in Ourense".

Miguel Vizoso

He has a solid musical training, a higher degree in Piano in Barcelona, a Master of Musical Creation from the URJC and a university expert in diagnosis and education of students with high abilities.

He has extensive experience as a piano teacher and trainer in different Spanish conservatories.

Currently he is part of different groups, in addition to continuing his path as a pianist, teacher and jury at different festivals.